

THESE ARE COACH ROPER'S MISSOURI TIGERS OF 1909

Carl Lindner, captain, called "Curly" because of his blond locks; Columbia, Mo.; age 22; height 6 feet 1 1/2 inches; weight 165 pounds; played basketball three years with Missouri and was captain last year; senior law; Phi Alpha Delta, Q. E. D. B., Mounds. Good, consistent player; seldom lets a man get by him; has played center every year.

Frank Barclay Thatcher, guard, Oregon, Mo.; age 19; height 6 feet 1 1/2 inches; weight 172 pounds; had no high school football experience and this is his first season with Missouri; junior engineer. He is the best man on the team to follow the ball; his weight and nerve make his side of the line strong; nose was broken in the Drake game.

George Aubrey Alexander, "Abe," Lancaster, Mo.; age 22; height 5 feet 11 inches; weight 161 pounds; third year on Varsity team; played two years on Lancaster high school team; began teaching town rural school but was brought back by fraternity brother; junior law; Kappa Alpha, Phi Alpha Delta, Mounds. Makes good on nearly every occasion in back field; charges through line well; plays full back.

Theodore E. Dupuy Hackney, halfback and end, Springfield, Mo.; age 21; height 5 feet 8 1/2 inches; weight 148 pounds; first year with the Tigers; noted for stellar work on preparatory teams; two years Springfield high school; Drury College, Springfield, Mo., one year; one season Western Military Academy, Alton, Ill.; captain of freshman team here last year; freshman law; Sigma Alpha Epsilon; president of freshman Arts last year.

Joseph Rescoe Black, known as "Dunny," Nevada, Mo.; age 21; height 5 feet 9 inches; weight 206 pounds; junior engineer; second year on Missouri team; played three years with Nevada high school; left tackle. Good on offensive and defensive; leaviest man on Tiger team; when not lazy is a great player.

Arthur Mel. Idler, substitute end, 4604 Burling Avenue, St. Louis; age 21; height 5 feet 10 inches; weight 145; second year out for the team; had no previous experience; junior lawyer; Kappa Alpha. He is playing good football for his size; he is not afraid to tackle and hold on.

James Pixley, substitute end, Canton, Mo.; age 20; height 5 feet 9 inches; weight 145; played two years with the Johnson high school; sophomore engineer; Kappa Sigma, Drains. He is a good prospect for next season; has done fair work in games this fall.

K. P. Gilchrist, called "Gilly" for short, Rolla, Mo.; age 19; height 5 feet 10 inches; weight 162 pounds; played with the Varsity two years; had "prop" experience on Lindbergh, Mo., high school team; attended Rolla last fall, brought here on change of venue to strengthen Tigers; junior in School of Mines; had some experience in left halfback, but now plays right tackle. Has fighting spirit; never gives up; good in line or backfield.

A. B. Widen, 55 1/2 Maple Avenue, St. Louis; age 20; height 6 feet 1 inch; weight 182; second year team; third year in university; "M" on track and football; fullback; member of "Druids" and Phi Kappa Psi fraternity; plunges low and hard; a good runner.

William Newland Deatherage, 3129 Wyandotte Street, Kansas City; age 21; height 5 feet 5 1/2 inches; weight 136 pounds; third year on Missouri team; two years' experience on Kansas City Central high school; senior Arts; Delta Tau Delta, Mystical Seven, Mounds; Varsity quarterback two years; now plays half; played only in Drake game this year. Good at running back punts.

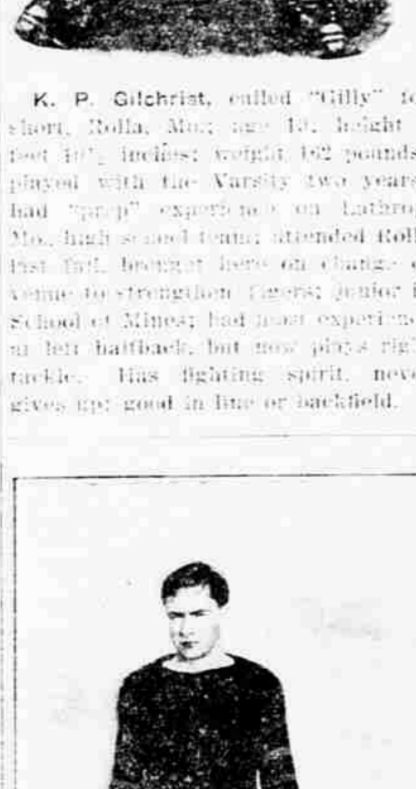

Glenn Bernard Shuck, legend, Hannibal, Mo.; age 21; height 5 feet 9 inches; weight 148 pounds; junior engineer; played on the Brookfield, Mo., high school one year. His ankle was sprained in Drake game, now him; fierce tackler; is expected to star next season.

Warren Roberts, Newville, Mo.; age 20; height 5 feet 10 inches; weight 185; second year on the Varsity; has won two "M's" in track; on shot and discus; Anachis, Mystical Seven; senior engineer; last played right guard every minute of the game this season. Follows fall work, takes little.

Henry Edgar Gave, Richland, Mo.; played in basketball 2 1/2 years; height 5 feet 11 inches; weight 160; second year on the Varsity; graduate student of mechanical engineering; Mystical Seven. He was regular tackle until "Gilly" joined the squad and he was moved; he was inconsistent but has shown on occasion of the good one gets.

Charles Vernon Bresales, substitute center, 1209 N. Grand, St. Louis; age 20; height 5 feet 9 inches; weight 180; first season Missouri team; sophomore Arts. Made the "All-American" team last year. Has not done much this season but is a good prospect for next year.

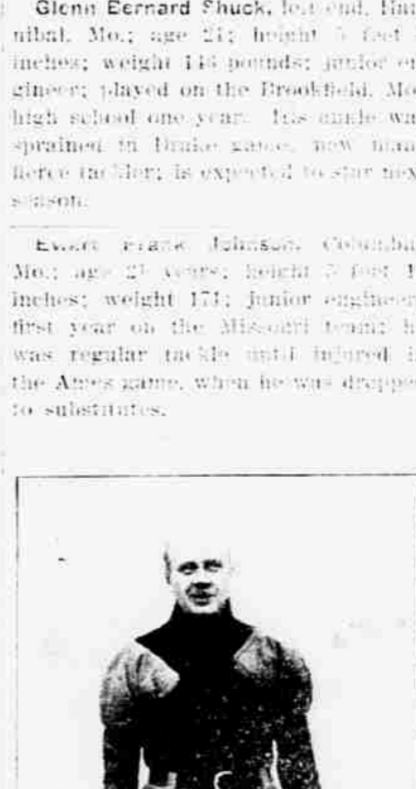

John Sallee Clare, Montgomery City, Mo.; age 22; height 5 feet 8 1/2 inches; weight 163; had three years' experience on Montgomery City High School. Junior farmer; Alpha Zeta; Mounds. This is his first year on the Varsity squad; as substitute fullback he can usually be depended upon to make his distance.

Eugene Clinton Hall, Jefferson City, Mo.; age 20; height 5 feet; weight 137; sophomore agricultural student; Delta Tau Delta. Played one year with Central College, Fayette, Mo. He is the best kicker on the team as to distance and accuracy; he is rather light for halfback where he has been substituting.

Henry Walter Crain, "Tankie", Elmo, Mo.; age 22; height 5 feet 11 inches; weight 167 pounds; played two years with Tankie College, Tankie, Mo.; plays left halfback; senior journalist; was on track team two years doing quarter-mile, pole vault and broad jump; third year with the Missouri Tigers. He is a plunger and has done excellent work at heavy half this year.

Edward Frank Johnson, Columbia, Mo.; age 21 years; height 5 feet 11 inches; weight 173; junior engineer; first year on the Missouri team; he was regular tackle until injured in the Ames game, when he was dropped to substitutes.

William H. Sauerbeck, 1009 S. Church Street, St. Louis; age 20; height 5 feet 7 inches; weight 143 pounds; and lives in the city; was in league with St. Joseph, Mo., and St. Louis, Mo., and other teams; assistant, Oakes, Ind.; was 2nd on Varsity, quarterback, junior year. Phi Delta Theta, T. N. P. Good general in the field; seldom losing his team.

Alden Wesley Roberts, tall, a man on the squad; Auxvasse, Mo.; substitute guard; age 21; height 5 feet 9 inches; weight 190; junior "Argo"; has Missouri Valley Conference record for discus throw, made last year 129 feet 2 inches; made his "M" in track. This is his first year on the Varsity and he had no preparatory school experience; played in the Washington game; expected to do good work next year after more coaching.

Proctor Thomson, substitute end, Columbia, Mo.; age 21 years; height 5 feet 10 inches; weight 163; first year on the Varsity; he had no preparatory experience; junior engineer; Kappa Sigma. Works hard; probably will make the team next season.

Edward Kiern, substitute quarterback, 6223 Washington Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.; age 21; height 5 feet 10 inches; weight 152; first year on the Missouri team. Had two years' preparatory experience as halfback on the St. Louis Central High School team. Was catcher on the Varsity baseball team last spring. Junior in the School of Law; Beta Theta Pi. He is a player of promise who may run Saunders a good race for the place next year.

Lloyd Holden Curtis, substitute halfback, was in his first game against Drake; came out of oblivion ten days before; 156 Irving Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.; age 19; height 5 feet 11 inches; weight 160; played one year on St. Louis Central High; junior engineer.
